

Dom Loubejac Pinot Noir Willamette 2019

$15.99

750ml

Brand Story

Inspired from his childhood in the historical town of Loudejac in the south of France, Laurent Montalieu grows wines rooted in tradition. From a unique vineyard in the rolling hills of the south Willamette Valley where sedimentary soils collide with Missoula flood soils, grows wines with new world edge and old world finesse.

Points of Distinction

- Handcrafted by winemaker Laurent Montalieu, this wine is reminiscent of a classic French Pinot Noir from the Willamette Valley, in Oregon.
- Loubejac, in Domaine Loubejac, refers to the town in Southern France where Laurent was born, drawing on his French heritage and lifelong passion for producing world class wines.
- Why buy: A classic Pinot Noir from the Willamette Valley.
- Who may like this: A Pinot Noir lover looking for their everyday favorite!

Review

Willamette Valley, OR- Reminiscent of a French wine, this Pinot Noir has aromas and flavors of black cherry, raspberry, sweet herbs and rose petals with a finish that is lively and vibrant. Pairs well with salmon, lamb, pork or filet mignon.

Taste Profile

Elegant, Black Cherry, Herb, Medium-bodied

Style Red: Concentrated, Intense, Fresh, Elegant, Sweet

Flavors: Cherry, Strawberry, Raspberry, Blackberry, Plum, Other: _____

Acidity: High, Medium, Low

Tannins: Firm Tannins, Ripe Tannins, Soft Tannins, Easy Drinking

Body: Light, Medium, Full

Rating: ☆☆☆☆☆

Notes: _____

Total
Wine
& MORE